

VERIFICATION & BANKING INFORMATION PACKET

I. OVERVIEW

Development rights and land coverage are assets associated with properties in the Lake Tahoe Basin. These need to be available or acquired before a property is developed or redeveloped. Development rights include tourist accommodation units (TAUs), single and multi-family residential units of use (RUUs), and commercial floor area (CFA). Residential units of use (RUUs) are formed by combining a potential residential unit of use (PRU) and a residential allocation. Other property assets that can be verified include mobile home dwelling units and shorezone structures (with the exception of buoys).

Development rights and land coverage can be verified and banked for future use on-site or transferred to another parcel. This packet explains application requirements for both the verification and banking processes.

To learn more about land coverage, development rights, or transfers, visit TRPA.gov.

The following important definitions related to development rights and land coverage can be found within the TRPA Code of Ordinances Chapter 90: Definitions:

- Land Coverage
- Excess Land Coverage
- Potential Land Coverage
- Land Capability
- Commercial Floor Area
- Tourist Accommodation Units

II. PROCESS FOR VERIFICATION & BANKING

Step 1: Look up existing parcel information. Visit the Parcel Tracker and use the location address to determine what records are available relating to land coverage, land capability, or development rights.

Step 2: Land capability must be verified prior to or concurrent with a verification and/or banking activity. Submit a Land Capability Verification application for concurrent review, if land capability has not been previously verified. See Step 1 for determining if land capability has been verified.

- Step 3: Check the property's title report to see if there are any bonds, assessments, back taxes, fees, or liens associated with the property. The applicant must receive authorization to convert development rights from all interested parties (e.g. parties or entities to whom the bond, assessment, back taxes, fees, or liens are owed).
- Step 4: Determine whether your application can be submitted to your local building department or TRPA. Use this guide to know where to apply.
- Step 5: Prepare a site plan and floor plans (if applicable). This information packet contains a checklist with all elements that must be included on the site plan and floor plans.
- Step 6: Gather all evidence that the land coverage and/or development rights are legally existing. Such evidence may include: original appraisal/assessor records from the County Assessor's Office, County/City permit records, utility records, tax records, dated photos or aerial photography. Provide ALL available evidence.
- Step 7: Complete and submit your online application to TRPA via the Accela Citizen Access Database available at www.trpa.gov. Application filing fees and all checklist items applicable for your project will be required at the time of application submittal.
- Step 8: Submit a Land Capability Verification application for concurrent review, if land capability has not been previously verified.
- Step 9: Work with a Planner. Once your application is received it will be assigned to a planner for field verification and further review. Visit the Parcel Tracker and use the location address to check the application status or to see which planner is assigned to your project.
- Step 10: Receive your results or permit. Upon completion of review, verification results will be provided by mail or email. For banking applications, a conditional permit will be issued with a requirement for removal and/or restoration of the land coverage or development rights. A final inspection will be required prior to the land coverage or development rights being officially banked. Any development rights (TAU's, RUU's, or CFA) banked on low land capability lands may not be redeveloped onsite and will be deed restricted pursuant to chapter 51.3 of the TRPA Code of Ordinances.
